The research team of the Mental Health Commission of Canada's National Housing Strategy Project has developed five questionnaires aimed at understanding the current housing and related support needs for people living with mental illness/problems and/or addictions in Canada. Deadline is June 4, 2010.

The five questionnaires are designed for various stakeholders including: (1) persons living with mental health problems or mental illness, (2) family members of persons living with mental health problems or mental illness, (3) hospital administrators and/or clinical leads (4) housing providers, and (5) community-based mental health service providers.

We would like to invite you to participate in this research project by completing the applicable questionnaire(s) available through the links below. Your expertise is critical to assisting the research team in making recommendations to improve housing and supports across Canada.
