

The Centre Flavie-Laurent opens its new facility

February 22, 2013 | cbc.ca

The Centre Flavie-Laurent moved to its new facility on Provencher Boulevard Friday from its Marion Street site in Winnipeg. The organization has been providing free furniture and clothing to between 350 and 500 people a week for 30 years. The new centre has a massive warehouse space to hold furniture and clothing donations.

For more on this story, click here.

Posted on WinnipegRentNet.ca

