

As part of Home Depot's commitment to increasing the inventory of affordable housing built responsibly in communities across Canada, Home Depot offers The Home Depot Canada Foundation Affordable Housing Grant Program.

This program will provide funding to Canadian registered charities completing housing projects that are healthy to live and affordable to own.

Please note that the deadline for applications is midnight (EST) Friday, August 20, 2010.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Applications will only be accepted from registered Canadian charities and other tax exempt entities such as municipalities.

Eligible projects include affordable housing unit refurbishments, retrofits and/or build projects that are either built in accordance with recognized sustainable standards or include sustainable building techniques and/or materials.

Only projects scheduled to begin before December 31, 2010 will be considered for funding.

Habitat for Humanity affiliates seeking support for sustainable home builds are not eligible for this program. If you are a Habitat affiliate, please visit ShareNet to apply for funding through The Home Depot Canada Foundation Sustainable Housing Grant Program offered in partnership with Habitat for Humanity Canada.
